

P ideal dichotomy and weak squares

Dilip Raghavan

We answer a question of Magidor and Cummings by showing that the P ideal dichotomy of Todorćević refutes certain weak versions of the square principle. The proof uses an appropriate generalization of ρ functions.